LEVEL UP

Some of you may remember a time when you were in school and recently returned from summer break. The teacher gives you a simple writing topic to dust off the cobwebs of learning entitled ‘What I Did for My Summer Vacation’. I couldn’t help but think about this writing assignment as I prepared this month’s newsletter article. As many of you know, I missed a Sunday in November to travel to a continuing education conference in Pittsburgh, PA called Level Up. There was a really cool gaming motif used in its design and the overall goal was to give us tools, skills, and knowledge that will help us to level up our churches and our ministry. I attended three breakout sessions that taught skills needed to grow our digital presence and use AI (artificial intelligence) as a sounding board to craft sermon series and announcements. See me one on one if you are also curious about these skills, but I recognize that I could write way more than an article on these subjects. Instead, I want to focus on three key themes we wrestled with during our time together. In fact, since it’s a whole lot to unpack, we’ll make this article part one of a three part series.

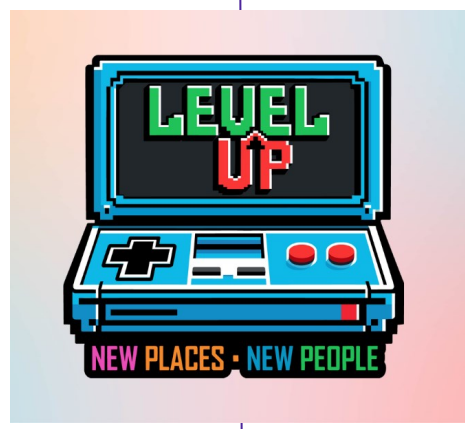

The first theme is that church can happen outside of our sanctuary and Sunday morning worship service. Did you know that around 30-40% of the folks in our community work on Sunday morning? So if the only worship our church has is on Sunday morning, we will always be excluding that 30-40%. Vice versa, if we create new worship experiences out into our communities on the other days of the week, we have the opportunity to reach people that have so frequently been left out. The focus of our conversations were on what we call Fresh Expressions or Missional Communities. The goal of these gatherings is to connect to people, build relationships, and offer them spiritual growth if they are seeking it. They can all look very different. For instance, we learned about dinner churches which are meals with the community that offer a spiritual reflection during them. Remember, Jesus often taught around a meal. They can also happen at a dog park or in a tattoo parlor. It’s important that they begin with listening and being a guest at these places in the community. We’re not simply out to make them like the church we are sent from, but to happen naturally as we connect and live into the existing communities.

Consider the question I’ve asked a few times: “What do you love to do?” Where do you gather during the week for community and support? Are there activities you love to do that have connected you to others? Perhaps it’s a book club or a dog park where you gather for conversation while dogs scurry around and children play. What would it look like to bring a spiritual dynamic to those discussions. We’re not talking a sermon series or intense Bible study. Rather a moment of prayer or a simple question like “What spiritual practices support you during a busy week?” That one change could turn a vital moment of community into an extension of our ministry. This month, I want you to ask those questions. What do I love to do? Where to I gather for community during the week? May the Holy Spirit take our answers and use them like a burning bush moment where we answer a new calling to serve.

There are more important themes to unpack from this wonderful weekend of conferencing. Next month we’ll talk about the importance of laity and the need for all of us to be deep listeners in our community. I cannot wait to share these new ideas with you and I’m ready to be surprised with how the Holy Spirit uses these fresh expressions to change our church and our reach into the community.

My family and I want to thank everyone who supported us during the recent loss of our father, Bill Dove. The cards, texts, calls, food, and prayers were so appreciated. Special thanks to the bereavement committee for the wonderful meal, and the prayer shawl ladies for my beautiful shawl. I'm blessed to have such a loving church family.

Dear Englewood Church,
On Saturday, October 14th, you opened your doors and hearts to our ministry group. You graciously ensured our comfort and made us feel warmly welcomed. We thank you as a congregation for sharing your beautiful space and providing us with two beautiful hosts (Barbara & Patsy). It is wonderful to call on our Christian community for help and have places like Englewood answer with open arms. Thank You!

We know there are angels among us...
Are you one of them?

As our congregation gets older, the worst feeling isn't being lonely, it is feeling forgotten.

We are in need of several more angels.

We are needed to deliver meals, sit and visit with homebound members, driving to doctor's appointments, and a very special angel to drive a member to and from choir (7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday nights).

We can always use more comforters through our card ministry.

If you are interested, please contact
Lu Czar (252-985-8126) or
Barbara Batts (252-450-5000).

If no one answers, please leave a message.

Thank You

Many thanks for the pretty flowers and the pretty smiles and talk. It was really special. I pray for you as you do this kindness. Thanks for your prayers.
God Bless,
Dot Parrish

Thank You

Thank you for your donations to the Prayer Shawl Ministry. Your donations make it possible for us to continue this ministry in providing comfort through blankets / shawls / chemo caps to those who are experiencing grief and illness. God bless you for caring.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

The Prayer Shawl Ministry will not meet during the month of December. They will return on Tuesday, January 2, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Do you know someone who would be comforted by receiving a Prayer Shawl or a Blanket? Forms are available on the table outside the church office for you to request shawls/blankets. You may call the church office at 252-443-2926. You may also contact Betty Poplin at 252-985-0950.

Women of The Way Circle

The Women of the Way met Tuesday, November 21st in the Aldersgate Classroom. Sharon Roth gave the devotion on "Thanking God not for the food, decorations or guests at Thanksgiving but simply because He loves us."

The program was presented by Dr. Sheetal Patel, a cardiologist at UNC Health Nash. She gave us lots of information pertaining to women's cardiac health, sign/symptoms for women for HA and CAD and dietary recommendations for good cardiac health. She concluded her presentation with a Q&A time with our members.

The circle continues to support Faith Christian Ministries with food products and The Lighthouse with paper products. Members are asked to bring these products to each meeting. We continue with the Backpack Buddies Program supporting 27 children each week at Williford School. St. Paul's and the Mill's Churches have picked up 10 additional children.

The Women of the Way will be hosting a holiday dinner for the ladies of the Lighthouse on Tuesday, December 5th in the Fellowship Hall at 5:00 p.m. Circle members signed up for food to bring and a discussion was held to determine gifts for these women from the Circle.

The members were reminded that Brunswick Stew is still available for sale. Starting on December 3rd and concluding on December 17th, circle members will be selling washcloth Teddy bears in the area adjacent to the narthex before and after services.

In lieu of a regular December meeting, circle members will gather at the Olive Garden Restaurant on Tuesday, December 19th at 11:30 for our annual Christmas luncheon.

The United Women in Faith is open to all women of the church and we invite you to come join us in the Aldersgate classroom at our next regular meeting on January 16th at 10:00 a.m.

FAITH CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES OF NASH COUNTY - DECEMBER NEEDS

Thank you for your faithfulness in continuing to support this mission project by donating food to feed the hungry in Nash County. Generally, we supply Faith Christian Ministries of Nash County with 1 can of food monthly. But in November, we asked you to donate Soap, Body Wash, and Shampoo. And as per usual, this generous congregation stepped forward. Several have asked why the change. The answer is twofold: 1. More churches have been donating food; and 2. People have been asking for hygiene items that Faith Christian Ministries doesn't have. So they asked EUMC to change their donations for November. This change will also continue through December.

Starting Sunday, December 3rd, the "ITEM of the Month" donation will be Laundry Detergent. There is a Love Can located in the area beneath the name tags in the church lobby, labeled "FCM MEALS OF THE MONTH". Please donate these items to help stock their pantry throughout the month of December. This is another wonderful opportunity for this generous congregation to help others who can't help themselves.

WOMEN OF THE WAY

The Women of the Way Circle will have dishcloths for sale in the church narthex for the first 3 Sundays in December. They will also be placing one order for RADA Cutlery before Christmas. If you are interested in placing an order, please contact Glenda Hortman.

Thursday Evening Bible Study - January 4th at 6:30 p.m.

Our Bible study resumes, as we look at the Parables of Jesus. Please note our new starting time of 6:30 p.m. It has been a real pleasure and privilege to get to share together in our various studies. Thanks for helping me to learn, as well. As always, if there is a specific topic, book of the Bible, or something you have always wanted to learn about and discuss; I am more than happy to lead a discussion on that. Please let me know if you will be attending so I will know how many copies of the material we need to provide. Rev. Geeting will be leading the study. Please contact Rev. Geeting at dgeeting@me.com or 540-841-2900. Thanks and blessing!

TRUSTEES CORNER!

It is a privilege to care for our church and I would like to express our gratitude to those members who say YES I CAN DO THAT! We are all caretakers for EUMC and will continue to witness to our community by providing space for meetings, community events and activities. I encourage you to also be diligent concerning our building and grounds. If you see something that needs attention, please record it in one of the Trustee notebooks available at the church office or in the Narthex.

Our audio-visual project is waiting for the availability of the parts we need and then we will create a better way to witness to all!

Each Trustee is a volunteer to open and close the church on Sunday of a particular month. If you would like to help, please let Barbara or Christian know. Many, many thanks for these caretakers of our congregation's safety.

Trustees are: Jack Ellis, Lea Ann Nichols, Lee Pullen, Jerry Lee Ezzell, Lisa Hicks, Terry Woodley, Brian Collins, Janet Hagan and Barbara Batts.

Project Agape for Armenia

The Outreach Committee would like to thank everyone for participating in our Project Agape collections. With the help of St. Paul, St. Andrews, and the Mill Churches we were able to prepare 195 Christmas Shoeboxes for the children of Armenia. Just think how excited they will be when they receive their boxes! And a special thank-you to "Our Children" - for reminding us "It is better to give than to receive".

Also, we have collected 84 items of bedding for the people of Armenia. This will be a great comfort to them as they are once again in the middle of unrest and trying to find a place to call Home.

Thank you to those who have been going to the MERCI Center every week to check and pack the items ready for shipment. We are truly making a difference in the lives of people we have never met yet share a bond with. Again, thank you to everyone for supporting our Outreach projects.

/// Pilgrimage 2023

PILGRIMAGE UPDATE

On November 10th-12th, our EUMC Youth participated in our annual Pilgrimage weekend! This annual event includes youth from across the North Carolina Conference, and is now hosted here in Rocky Mount. We enjoyed worship with fantastic musicians and speakers, connected with other youth groups, ate good food, and enjoyed fun camp activities at North Carolina Wesleyan University. Our group had a wonderful weekend together! Thank you to those who helped with this event, and also to everyone who has contributed to our Youth Fund which makes activities like this possible for us!

Christmas Eve Luminaries

The UMYF is having their luminary sale again this year. A form is included in the worship program on December 3rd and December 10th. You may dedicate luminaries in memory or honor of your loved ones. A member of the UMYF will be in the church lobby before and after the worship service to accept your completed forms and payment. Luminaries are $1.00 per name. You may also place your order in the church office during the week and online at www.inglewood-umc.com/luminaries.

The deadline for placing orders is December 11th.

CONFIRMATION STARTING IN JANUARY

A new Confirmation class for our youth begins on Sunday, January 21st! This class is for students in grades 6 and up who have not already completed Confirmation. We will meet on Sundays from 4:00-5:00 p.m. (an hour before our regular youth group time) for 10 weeks. During this time we will learn about the beliefs and practices of the church so that we can follow God and participate in the church more fully and faithfully. We will also have a retreat one weekend in March to The Refuge Retreat Center in Ayden, NC. This class will be confirmed on Easter Sunday, March 31st. Contact Savanna to sign up by January 14th, or if you have any questions about Confirmation.

One of the disciplines that we as Christians practice is giving our gifts of time, talent and tithes.

We view this as a vital exercise in our spiritual journey.

It is an active engagement with our ongoing faithfulness to our witness and relationship with God.

While money is not the most important focus of our church, we do have obligations to meeting in order to fulfill the ministry goals set forth before us. Currently, we are not meeting our giving pledge goals.

As of November 30th, we have a shortfall in our overall general ministry deficit of $19,139.

Still, hear this good news! In November, we saw God's abundance in your generosity.

Giving was higher than any other November in recent memory. I know that we are passionate about our worship and outreach and it isn't too late to be a part of the great things happening at Englewood UMC.

If you haven't yet met your giving goal, we urge you to be prayerful in ways you might catch up to your pledge. If you are on target, perhaps you'll consider going the extra mile.

Either way, together, I know we can find ways to meet our ministry goals for 2023.

W. B. Bullock represented the residents of Ward 6 on the Rocky Mount City Council for nearly 20 years ending in July 2022. During his entire term, he represented the City of Rocky Mount on the Transportation Advisory Committee of the Rocky Mount Metropolitan Area Transportation Planning Organization. This agency is responsible for setting priorities for transportation funding for the North Carolina Department of Transportation for the Rocky Mount area. W. B. served on the Transportation Advisory Committee along with elected representatives from Nash and Edgecombe Counties, and the Towns of Nashville and Sharpsburg.

SENIOR ADULT FELLOWSHIP

The Senior Adult Fellowship will meet in the Fellowship Hall for Bingo at 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 6th and Wednesday, December 20th.
