Rest

“Remember the Sabbath day and treat it as holy. Six days you may work and do all your tasks, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God. Do not do any work on it...” Exodus 20:8-10

Maybe it's because I'm just returning from vacation. It could be that as I look ahead to the month of May I cannot help but see Memorial Day weekend and the official start to summer vacation season. But I have rest on the brain. Early in my ministry I wrote a sermon entitled "Resting is Hard Work." Never mind the content, even I have forgotten that, but I never forgot the title. Perhaps because it is so incredibly true. Resting can sometimes be incredibly hard to do. There is always a task to complete, something that has to get done. And even when we declare it's the weekend or time to take a vacation, it takes a little while before we can turn off work mode. Confession, whenever my phone rings I get a little anxiety as I look to see who is calling. What's going on now? Never mind! It's just a telemarketer.

Did you know that resting is so important for us that God even included it as a commandment? God decreed that we need to take a break, not just when we can squeeze it in, but on a regular basis. Rest is literally built into creation and into the week in such a way that we must honor it often. Walter Brueggemann argues in his book Sabbath as Resistance: Saying No to the Culture of Now, that the very act of taking a day to rest is resistance against our world that places value, not on people, but what we produce. Consider who heard this message first, the ancient Israelites who were literally turned into slaves to support the economics of Pharaoh and Egypt. Honoring Sabbath rest was not only recharging their worn bodies, but a way of standing up to the one who treated them like another commodity.

Do you feel that, too? Do you feel like the demands of our culture make it hard to turn off the phone and spend a day reading or with family? When you're not doing something productive, do you start to get a little antsy or feel like the day may be wasted? God's commandment to rest tells us it's ok to not be working, that our worth is not found in what we create, but in who created us. And God demonstrated this with God's own Sabbath rest. It was ok for God to take a moment just to appreciate what God created.

So mark your calendars for Sabbath. Ensure that at least one day of the week (or more if you can!) is set aside from work and tasks, the need to be productive. Start planning that vacation with your family. And, through it all, remember that you don't have to be productive in any way shape or form during that time away.

However, do strive to be intentional with it. How is time spent with family and friends during this holy day of rest? How is time spent with the God who commanded you to take it easy? Know that if the day was filled with prayers and playing board games with loved ones, you answered God's call well.

Thank You

Dear Englewood Friends,

I would like to thank you for all your acts of kindness shown me in the last few months. During and after Nancy's death (my niece), I have had numerous phone calls and lots of cards, all were very much appreciated. Before that was Jeff's illness (my son). Thanks for your concerns. He is doing good and back at work. Prayers are being answered and we are so grateful.

During this period of time I have had bud vases delivered twice from the Flower Ministry. Once by Nancy Mooring and a 2nd time by Lu Czar. They were both beautiful. Fresh flowers are always so uplifting.

And, I have recently received a shawl from the Prayer Shawl / Blanket Ministry. It is beautiful, warm and I love it. I am envious and in awe of the talent these ladies have.

My friends here at Englewood sure know how to make a person feel special. This time it just happened to be me.

Thank you for caring.

Love you all,
Glenda Hortman

Many thanks to my loving church family for the care and concern expressed through phone calls, cards, flowers, and prayers after my recent health issue. They all brightened my days and lifted my spirits.

Embra Pullen

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for the Bible, picture and well wishes I received on Easter Sunday for my confirmation and baptism. My thanks also to Miss Savanna for teaching us more about Christianity and the Methodist Church.

Love,
Jordan Hodges

Dear EUMC Family and Friends,

Thank you all for all the prayers, phone calls, and so many cards that were sent to and for me during my stay in the hospital and rehab in Greensboro after my traumatic fall and surgery to repair my knee and leg. The cards filled the windows of my room and the messages in them filled my heart as did the prayers and calls. And the cards, prayers and calls continued when I went home. Your visits were also very much appreciated.

Also thank you to the Flower Committee for the beautiful flowers that brightened my day when I returned home and to the Caring Committee for the lovely bag of goodies delivered by Barbara Batts.

Thanks for caring,

Love, hugs and blessings to all,
Pat Bunn

Dear Prayer Shawl / Blanket Ministry,

Your kindness goes beyond measure. Thank you so much for the prayers and beautiful blanket made by your ministry for my daughter, Amy. She is not well enough to write this herself. But please know that with God's help, she will one day be able to thank you herself.

Women of The Way Circle

The Women of the Way Circle met April 18th in the Aldersgate classroom. Sharon Roth gave the devotion "Springtime is Here". The context was taken from 2 Corinthians 5:17-18;21 which talks about new beginnings. We were reminded that God gave us a new beginning when He sent His Son to die on the cross for our sins and the continual hope that this gives us.

The circle was delighted to welcome a new member today, Carolyn Nichols. An update was given on those circle members who have incurred medical issues. The circle continues to support Faith Christian Ministries with food products and The Lighthouse with paper products. Terri Buckner reported that dishcloth bunnies were sold at Lydia's Sisters Circle Tea and in the narthex the following Sunday. Even though the demand for these items has waned, it was recommended that we continue to keep a supply of dishcloths on hand for those church members who need them. A recap was given of the Lighthouse Dinner held on March 28th. Two of their residents and their director also attended the circle meeting on the 18th. Barbara Batts gave a brief presentation on Autism Support Group and their upcoming Walk and Run Fundraiser. No program was offered today as the circle adjourned to the Fellowship Hall where members packed 64 health kits for the MERCI Center. There will be no formal meeting in May. Instead, the group will have a fellowship lunch at the Olive Garden Restaurant at 11:30 a.m. on May 16th. After this, the circle will take the summer off, but monthly meetings will resume on the 3rd Tuesday of September at 10:00 a.m. in the Aldersgate classroom. All women of the church are invited to join us.

ENGLEWOOD UNITED METHODIST MEN

The Englewood United Methodist Men will meet on Tuesday, May 9th at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. This will be our last meeting until September 12th. Our speaker is Mary Jane Lyonnaise who will talk about the finds from a recent report on food insecurity in our area. The title of the report is "Healthy Families: Understanding and Improving Regional Food Access in the Upper Coastal Plain Region of Eastern North Carolina". Interestingly, the report indicates that 24% of household in our area experience food insecurity. Recall that the Englewood Methodist Men have consistently supported Meals on Wheels and voted earlier this year to support Backpack Buddies.

So come on out and join us! We will have another great meal prepared very reasonably priced at $5.00 (free for first time visitors). We serve dinner at 6:00 p.m., receive a short devotion, and then introduce our speaker. Please mark your calendar.

Peter Varney

FAITH CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES OF NASH COUNTY - MAY NEEDS

Hunger never goes away for many families in Nash County. And Faith Christian Ministries serves all of Nash County with the majority of the referrals coming from Rocky Mount. We continue to take 1 to 1/2 cans of food to them monthly. So please continue to donate at least one item. Just pick it up when you buy your groceries and drop it off at the church.

Starting Sunday, May 7th, the "Meals of the Month" donation will be Cereal, Pop Tarts, Oatmeal and Grits.

There is a LOVE CAN located in the area beneath the name tags in the church lobby, labeled "FCM MEALS OF THE MONTH". Please donate these items to help stock their pantry throughout the month of May. This is another wonderful opportunity for this generous congregation to help others who can't help themselves.

SERMON SERIES

When was the last time you read the story of Noah's Ark? Or really thought about David and Goliath? It's time to revisit these childhood Bible stories as grownups! From May 7th to June 11th, Pastors Nathan and Savanna will lead us in exploring some of the Bible stories we remember from Sunday School in new and exciting ways. From Creation and Noah's Ark to Daniel and the Lions' Den, we'll take a deeper look at these passages and discover that their impact extends beyond childhood. We can't wait to go on this adventure with you!

Mother's Day / Father's Day Pictures

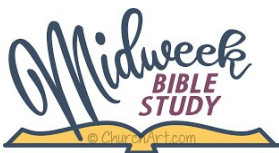

Mother's Day and Father's Day are coming up, and we would like to honor our parents in a slideshow of pictures on those days in worship!

You can submit pictures by email to sbecker@englewood-umc.com or by bringing hard copies to the church office.

We do have pictures that have been submitted in previous years, but if you want to make sure we have yours on file, you can call the church office or email Savanna to check.

The deadline for receiving Mother's Day pictures is May 4th.

Midweek Bible Study

The Midweek Bible Study (led by retired Methodist Minister, Rev. Doug Geeting) will continue to meet on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone is welcome! We will be looking at the Apostle Peter. The Study will continue through May 25th.

Caring Card Ministry

Many thanks to those of you who are bringing cards for this ministry and sending cards, also! It makes such a difference in the lives of those who are receiving them. In the words of Dan Vaughan, "Keep those cards coming!" and his daughter Beverly, a big Thank You to the VFW team that creates many of the beautiful cards.

TRUSTEES REPORTING PROGRESS!

More of our members are bringing items to our attention that make our Church Home safer and more welcoming. Please be sure to write your observations in the notebooks available either at the office or the church lobby.

We are happy to have the new assistance rails in place at the Altar steps. We are safer using these and are grateful to a special caring member for seeing this project through to their use.

Please remember that doors will remain locked for your safety. Thank you for understanding.

Courtyard changes are coming! What does that mean? We are beginning our final planning for this area to be a fun place for our member. If you can climb, throw a ball, hug, build a train track or offer a helping hand, you will have a place in the courtyard. So, keep looking!

We welcome anyone to become a Sunday Volunteer. Please let Barbara Batts or other trustees know of your willingness.

Trustees are: Jack Ellis, Lea Ann Nichols, Lee Pullen, Jerry Lee Ezzell, Lisa Hicks, Terry Woodley, Brian Collins, Janet Hagan and Barbara Batts.
